PATAGONIA ECLIPSE

December 2020

Highlights: 2020 Eclipse (December 14, 2020), Buenos Aires, Bariloche

SAMPLE 6-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 – December 10 - Welcome to Buenos Aires

Upon arrival in Buenos Aires, you are met and transferred to your hotel. Welcome to Buenos Aires! Elegant, old-worldly, with a touch of Paris here and a touch of London there, a dash of New York cosmopolitanism and big splash of Italian exuberance. Here, everything is grand, on a scale fit for kings: Tourists photograph vast steaks at restaurants, Nueve de Julio avenue ranks as the world's widest, a cemetery so fancy that it occupies one of the poshest parts of the poshest neighborhood, while the entire city fronts onto the world's widest river. Buenos Aires never fails to impress. Explore the highlights of the 'Paris of South America' in a three hour city tour accompanied by one of our experienced representatives who will introduce you to the history and culture of this magnificent city. Continue to La Boca, the tough port barrio and colorful working class area of Buenos Aires and finally Recoleta, where you will visit its world famous cemetery and see the tombs of the most important personalities of the Argentine history.

Special Zodiac Dinner - 12 Course Meal

Do you believe in the stars? Did you know that your zodiac sign not only defines your personality but also what you love to eat and how you eat it? Together, let's enjoy a 12-course meal prepared by a professional and well known chef, each course representing an astrological sign, learning about your relationship with food and drink. A tasteful - and tasty - excuse to surprise yourself with fantastic dishes and wines, and have fun while learning a little more about yourself. An astrologer will join us to answer all your questions and tell you which meals best suit you. Are you ready to reveal the mystery? Under the full moon eclipse, be prepared to discover what the stars are about to tell you.

Day 2 – December 11 - Embracing Buenos Aires

Escape the hustle and bustle of central Buenos Aires on this relaxing half-day getaway featuring fashionable riverside suburbs and a cruise along a sheltered waterway. Drive to Tigre passing through neighborhoods such as Vicente López, Olivos, and San Isidro, and past elegant homes of these residential suburbs, including the Presidential Residence in Olivos, official home to Argentina's president. On arrival at the Paraná River, board a private motor launch and head out along the Delta's waterways. An array of colorful sights awaits as your boat passes islands, turn-of-the-century homes, yacht clubs and a flotilla of water-crafts, including canoes and sailboats. A soft drink and snack are served while you enjoy the scenery. Rejoin your vehicle when the river cruise ends and transfer back to your hotel. Enjoy your Dinner and Tango show at Café de los Angelitos, a venue that's witnessed more than 100 years of history in Buenos Aires. The most outstanding political and artistic personalities from the 20th century have sat at its tables to write thousands of pages of history that ensured Buenos Aires breathes tango on every corner. Having undergone ambitious restructuring across three floors, Café de los Angelitos pays attention to every last detail, especially to its luxurious tango show comprising six musicians, two singers and 12 dancers. VIP places are booked for this special dinner.

Day 3 – December 12 - The Pampas

A 90-minute drive north of Buenos Aires city leads guests San Antonio de Areco, a traditional gaucho town whose colonial buildings are straight out of the 19th century. A place with history and tradition, this is where Don Segundo Sombra, Argentina's most famous literary gaucho, belongs. A picturesque town, this is the place to discover the gaucho lifestyle and customs, particularly at Ricardo Güiraldes Gaucho Museum. It's also home to some of the best leather designers and silversmiths' ateliers that produce regional wares from yerba mate gourds to belts. Close to the town of San Antonio de Areco, La Bamba de Areco estancia is located in the heart of the pampas on the banks of the Areco stream. La Bamba de Areco offers precisely what its Celtic name translates to; a place to rest. A welcome drink and empanadas awaits, followed up by a range of activities such as equine and folkloric demonstrations. Enjoy a barbecue lunch after which guests can relax by the swimming-pool, take a stroll in the park, or go horseback-riding or cycling before a traditional English tea.
