42 NIGHTS | 4 INCREDIBLE COUNTRIES
21 NIGHTS LUXURY RIVER CRUISING &
18 NIGHTS IN THE WORLD'S BEST HOTELS

Uniwold Boutique River Cruises has announced an epic new journey on land and water, spanning North Africa and Southeast Asia. Taking place in January and February 2023 over 43 days, The 'World's Most Exotic River and Land Journey' combines river cruising and luxury touring across Egypt, India and Southeast Asia.

The journey begins in Egypt, combining five nights at the Four Seasons Hotel Cairo, and a week-long cruise aboard the Super Ship Sphinx. Guests will explore the ancient temples of Karnak, Luxor and Hatshepsut; visit the newly reopened Grand Egyptian Museum and visit the Valley of the Kings.

Guests will then fly to India's Golden Triangle and a seven-day Ganges River cruise. It includes Delhi before travelling to Agra for sunset and sunrise visits to the iconic Taj Mahal and Kolkata. The journey culminates with thirteen days in Southeast Asia, experiencing Vietnam, Cambodia and the Mekong River.

The 'World's Most Exotic River and Land Journey' itinerary is inclusive of excursions, scheduled airport transfers, onboard gratuities, and all international and internal flights. The limited-time-only journey will run from January 7- February 18, 2023, with international flights departing from London and Manchester.
