

Adventures on the Water

The waters of French Polynesia and the South Pacific offer a world of translucent lagoons, rainbow-colored coral reefs, and a myriad of tropical fish. A highlight of the Paul Gauguin Cruises' experience is watersports and they offer many opportunities to explore these seas.

SCUBA Diving Excursions

If you've always wanted to try SCUBA diving, your cruise on The Gauguin is the perfect opportunity. Their onboard marina offers diving excursions for all experience levels, and they're the only luxury ship in French Polynesia to offer PADI certification classes for novices.

Fun in the Sun

You'll also have plenty of time to enjoy the South Pacific sunshine on their pool deck. Take a refreshing dip in the water or perhaps grab the drink of the day from the Pool Bar, a good book, and a deck chair, and settle in for a leisurely afternoon.

Watersports Marina

Their specially designed watersports platform turns the ship into your headquarters for all kinds of adventures on the water. It's as easy as descending to sea level and hopping aboard a paddleboard or launching a kayak.

Their watersports equipment is also available when they call upon our private beaches. Plus, if you plan on snorkeling in multiple ports, you're welcome to check out snorkeling gear from the marina for the duration of your cruise.

The watersports marina is available in select ports and subject to weather conditions and local restrictions. Swimming from the watersports marina is prohibited.
